

David W. Agler
Class or Assignment Name
Date Submitted

Paper Title

Section 1. Introduction

Explain the topic of your paper, note your principal goals/aims/theses, and state the structure of your paper. In section 2, I will do X. In section 3, I will do Y. In section 4, I will do Z.

Section 2. Analysis of a problem

Begin by indicating what this section plans to do. In this section, we will analyze a problem or a debate. Introduce the relevant terms, concepts, ideas, history, or positions.

Section 3. A previous solution

Again, begin by indicating what this section plans to do. Now that the problem or debate has been clarified, explain a previous attempt at solving this problem.

Section 4. A better solution

Again! Begin by indicating what this section plans to do. In this section, you will state a different solution and why this solution (1) solves the problem (settles the debate) or (2) is better than previous solutions. In addition, you could state some limitations of this solution.

Section 5 Conclusion

Summarize the paper. You can also indicate various limitaitons on your solution or potential areas that need more investigation.

References

1. My Great Reference Citation
2. Another Great Reference Citation